

Two friendlies ahead

AFTER Saturday's important victory at Dulwich Hamlet which moved them into second place in the table, Wycombe Wanderers can afford to relax a little this week with two friendly matches.

Tonight (Tuesday) they travel to Hungerford while on Saturday, the Blues have arranged a match against Brighton Reserves at Loakes Park.

The game at Hungerford tonight kicks off at the normal time of 7.30 for the Rothmans Hellenic League Club have recently acquired floodlights — one of the few to do so in this league.

Due to their involvement in several cup competitions, Hungerford have fallen behind on their league programme and are currently 10th from 16 clubs in the Premier Division, having played as many as eight fewer games than some other clubs.

Hungerford have done well in this year's Berks and Bucks Senior Cup, reaching the third round. They now meet Wokingham Town from Division Two of the Rothmans Isthmian League.

Managed by Rothmans football specialist Tony Williams, Hungerford staged an inaugural game to open their floodlights in October. They met an England Amateur XI and drew 1-1 with Wycombe player Graham Mackenzie scoring their goal. John Delaney hit the equaliser with 15 minutes left and Keith Mead, Tony Horseman, Ray Eaton, Paul Birdseye and Mick Holifield all turned out for the England team.

Hungerford are unlikely to face such a stern task tonight for Wanderers will probably field their squad members for the game.
